Flower's Crossing Facility Weather Safety Policy:
The weather safety official shall immediately notify the meet committee of any weather safety concerns, including but not limited to lightning. The meet committee is charged with the responsibility of suspending or canceling meets when required by inclement weather. The meet committee shall seek input from the weather safety official to make the decision to resume meets at the appropriate time. During periods of inclement weather and lightning, all swimmers, parents, volunteers, and spectators will exit the pool deck and team areas. The clubhouse will be the designated safety area. Participants may also return to their parked cars until the meet resumes. Flower's Crossing will adhere to the Gwinnett Swim League "30-30 Rule" which is if lightning is within 30 miles, the meet will be suspended, and the meet will not resume until 30 minutes after the last clap of thunder.
